Dear All,

I am writing to update key partners and their representatives with a central interest in the security of Nobel House and the Building Safety Fund and Waking Watch Relief Fund. This is so all are as informed as possible with the representations I am making and the information I have been able to elicit from the responsible Government Department.

The recently delivered information will plainly be of concern to all and is the subject of my latest representation to the Secretary of State.

Please find attached an information pack which contains;

1. My email to the Rt Hon Robert Jenrick, Secretary of State dated 12 January 2021 seeking confirmation of Y&Y's registration to the Building Safety Fund and application guidance.
2. Reply from Lord Greenhalgh, Minister of State for Building Safety, Fire and Communities dated 11 March 2021 in response to my email to the Secretary of State dated 12 January 2021.
3. My correspondence to the Rt Hon Christopher Pincher, Minister of State for Housing dated 23 April 2021, the last paragraph of which supports a belated application to the Waking Watch Relief Fund.
4. Correspondence to the Waking Watch Relief team dated 23 April 2021 in respect of Y&Y Management's belated application and responses.
5. Response from the Building Safety Fund team in respect of Y&Y Management's registration dated 6 May 2021.
6. My letter to the Rt Hon Robert Jenrick, Secretary of State dated 12 May 2021 with regards the Building Safety Fund and Waking Watch Relief Fund.

I do not underestimate the significant anxiety this current position will cause. I will continue to do my utmost to keep people informed, seek remedy from the Government for the situation people find themselves in through no fault of their own.

None of the above is a substitute for legal remedies open to any party, but I will continue to work to make those potential routes of restitution unnecessary if possible.

Yours sincerely,

Crisp Blunt.
